Some of the most lovable and best people in the world are cranky, and a "leetle" hard to manage, particularly when you want to do them good. Then it is that justifiable and righteous artfuiness may be resorted to. As, for instance, in the following case given by a devoted wife and mother, in lowa:

"This spring my daughter, who is a teacher, became convinced that coffee was doing her harm, as it caused distress and belching after eating. She telet that she needed a warm drink in the morning, but disliked hot water on milk. Then our daily use of Grape-Nuts suggested Postum.

"For some time my husband, who has been a user of coffee from his youth, had been more than usually troubled with sieeplessness and nervousness and i felt that Postum might be helpful to him. The question was how to persuade them to leave of drinking coffee and try Postum, against which they had repeatedly expressed.
